

I oppose anti-net neutrality. I advocate for a free and open internet. We're already living in a capitalist wasteland, so keep your hands off of one of the last bastions of sanity any of us have. Do not throttle internet speeds for the highest bidder. That's depraved and so American it disgusts me.